

SOULTECH SANCTUM

MEMBER AGREEMENTS SUMMARY

A 21st Century Spiritual Tribe

Please Note: Spiritual intention includes things like physical, emotional, and mental healing and life optimization. The term "sacrament" refers to sacred medicine used with spiritual intent.

- Soultech Member agrees to join The Sanctum in furtherance of a sincere spiritual and/or life optimization exercise.
- Soultech Member certifies that any sacrament obtained from The Sanctum will be treated with respect and Soultech Member will only consume sacrament in furtherance of their sincere spiritual exercise. (Includes things like physical, emotional, and mental healing and life optimization.)
- Soultech Member certifies that they will keep any sacrament in their possession secure and will take all steps reasonably necessary under any given circumstances to ensure that sacrament will not be subject to diversion from spiritual to non-spiritual use.
- Soultech Member certifies that their main intention is for personal spiritual practice. Medical, political, and civic efforts are being made to bring Psilocybin to the general public, please understand they are out of the spiritual scope of what is practiced at Soultech Sanctum.
- Soultech Member agrees to consume the sacrament in a safe and responsible manner and in accord with personal knowledge of their specific response to the sacrament.
- Unless otherwise noted, Soultech Member agrees to never distribute sacrament to anyone who is not a certified Soultech Member of The Sanctum.
- Soultech Member certifies they understand that The Sanctum does not authorize non-spiritual use of the sacrament and that any use of the sacrament outside of The Sanctum's prescribed spiritual setting is considered out of alignment with Soultech Sanctum.
- Soultech Member certifies they understand that their membership in The Sanctum is subject to be withdrawn at any time.
- Soultech Member agrees to behave, to the best of their ability, in accordance with the principle of cosmic unity and interconnectedness.
- Soultech members agree when we come together and gather to reflect each other's light, we magnify our positive effect exponentially! In becoming a member, you intend to raise the vibration of The Sanctum by being open minded and showing up as your full self to gatherings, ceremonies, resources and services provided by Soultech Sanctum as time, resources, and schedules permit.

If you have any questions about Soultech or Soultech Agreements please email support@SoultechSanctum.com. We are happy to address any questions you may have.